

Call for Papers
15th Annual Texas Finance Festival

April 25-27, 2013
Austin, Texas

The 15th Annual Texas Finance Festival (TFF) will be held on April 25-27, 2013 at the AT&T Executive Education and Conference Center, Austin, TX (<http://www.meetat texas.com/>). The conference is sponsored by the Department of Finance at the University of Texas at Austin and the Review of Financial Studies (RFS).

You are invited to submit papers on any topic in financial economics for the 2013 TFF. In order to encourage submissions by more junior researchers, priority will be given to papers submitted by researchers who have graduated in or after June 2006. (Multiple submissions from the same author are not encouraged). The deadline for submissions is:

February 1, 2013

Please submit an electronic (pdf) version of the manuscript to:

TFF-Submissions@mcombs.utexas.edu

Space is limited so we will give first priority to program participants. The registration fee for the conference is $150. For registration and schedule, please visit the conference website

The program will be announced in late February.

TFF & RFS PARTNERSHIP:

TFF and the Review of Financial Studies announce a combined submission process. At your choice, your paper submitted to the TFF also will be considered for publication by the RFS free of charge. The rules for this dual submission process are as follows:

1. You must expressly indicate you are interested in consideration by the RFS.
2. At the discretion of the RFS, dual submissions will be sent out for a formal referee report. If such a report is sought, then the paper's author will receive a copy of the RFS reviewer's report. Only a relatively small number of submissions will be sent for a formal referee report.
3. Papers submitted for dual consideration must not be under review at another journal or the RFS, nor can they be considered for dual submission if previously rejected by the RFS.
4. "Rejected" paper authors are permitted to submit a future version of their papers to the RFS without prejudice.
5. While under consideration by the TFF and the RFS, a paper may not be submitted to another journal (or the RFS) until the author has been notified.
