

The Review of Financial Studies

Review of Financial Studies Announces Behavioral Finance Award Sponsored by Hillcrest Asset Management

August 14, 2018 – The Review of Financial Studies (RFS) is pleased to announce the new Hillcrest Best Paper Prize for the best paper in Behavioral Finance published in the Review of Financial Studies. The prize, which will be presented for the first time in 2019, will be sponsored by Hillcrest Asset Management, an institutional investment management firm and a leader in the field of Behavioral Finance investing.

RFS is the first top finance journal to offer a Behavioral Finance award. Through the addition of this award, RFS aims to recognize high quality research in the field and to encourage innovative new papers. One winning paper will be selected annually from papers that have been accepted for publication in RFS. RFS encourages authors to join our excitement by sending their most exemplary work to RFS!

The inaugural presentation of the award will take place annually at the awards reception, along with the Michael J. Brennan Best Paper Award. The next will be at SFS Cavalcade North America 2019, which will take place May 20-23 at Carnegie Mellon University.

As always, submissions to RFS may be sent via our web site, www.rfssfs.org.

Contact:
manager@sfs.org

The Review of Financial Studies is a leading journal in financial economics and is sponsored by the Society for Financial Studies. RFS has provided a forum for significant new research since publishing its first issue in 1988. RFS is led by Executive Editor Itay Goldstein and Editors Lauren Cohen, Francesca Cornelli, David Denis, Wei Jiang, Philip Strahan, and Stijn Van Nieuwerburgh. Visit our web site at www.rfssfs.org.